Find the 10 most popular holiday destinations for French people. Find out how to say them in French.	Choose a holiday destination in a French speaking country and write a short piece of text in French pretending you are going there. Say where you are going and how you get there. You can use the phrase: il y a ... (there is / there are ...) to say what is there also.	Find a picture of a holiday scene (or use one of your own photos) with activities and describe it in French, pretending you are there doing the activity. Give your opinions on the activity and reasons for your opinions.
Find 10 pieces of vocabulary for things that you would take on holiday. Write them in French and English.	Translate this description of holidays into English: <<Normalement, je vais en France pour mes vacances. Nous allons en avion parce que c'est très rapide. J'adore la France parce que c'est belle et il fait beau. Je nage dans la mer et mon frère surfe! Dans le futur je vais aller au Sénégal – c'est fascinant! Mon père va manger la cuisine locale.>>	Translate this email about a holiday into French, using your knowledge and lesson notes to help: Hi Charlotte! I am going to Canada for the holidays. It's very beautiful. I am going to the mountains. I am taking the plane, but I prefer to take the train because it is comfortable! I am going to eat the local food. It's cool!
Find the French for 10 types of transport. Write them in French and English.	Draw a comic strip about a pretend holiday you are going to go on in the future, say where you are going to go, how you will get there, what activities you will do. Label it with speech bubbles in French, use the near future tense : Je vais aller ... Je vais prendre ... Je vais nager...	Write a letter in French to a friend about a holiday you are going to go on next year using the near future tense (you can make it up!) L'année prochaine je vais aller en / au ... Say what transport you are going to use to get there: Je vais prendre ... Describe the activities you are going to do: Je vais me bronzer ... Say what you would like to do using the conditional tense: Je voudrais ... Ce serait ...
